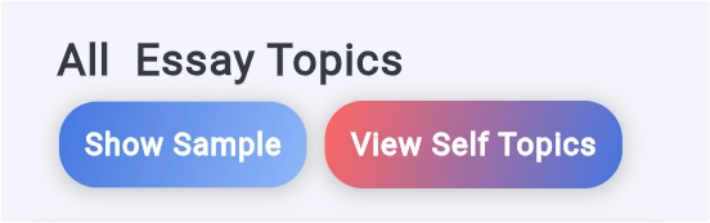
Creating Your Own Work Essay Assignment

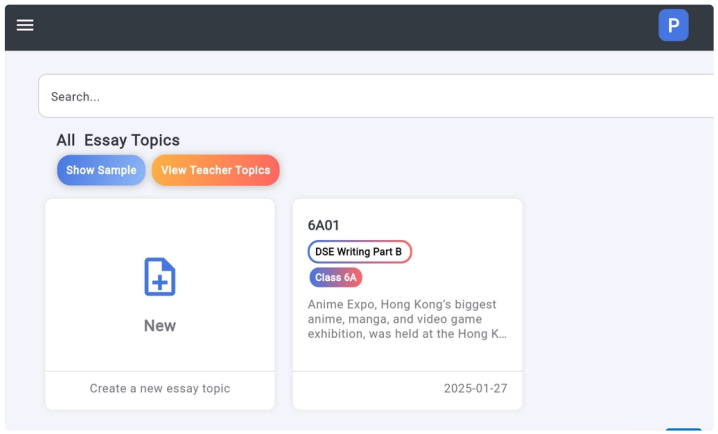
During study breaks, you may have written essays but find your English teacher unavailable to mark your work. Don't worry—Penso is here to help.

You can create your own essay task and receive comprehensive feedback and grading from Penso.

Here is how you can do it:

On the Essay Topic Tab, click ‘View Self Topics’





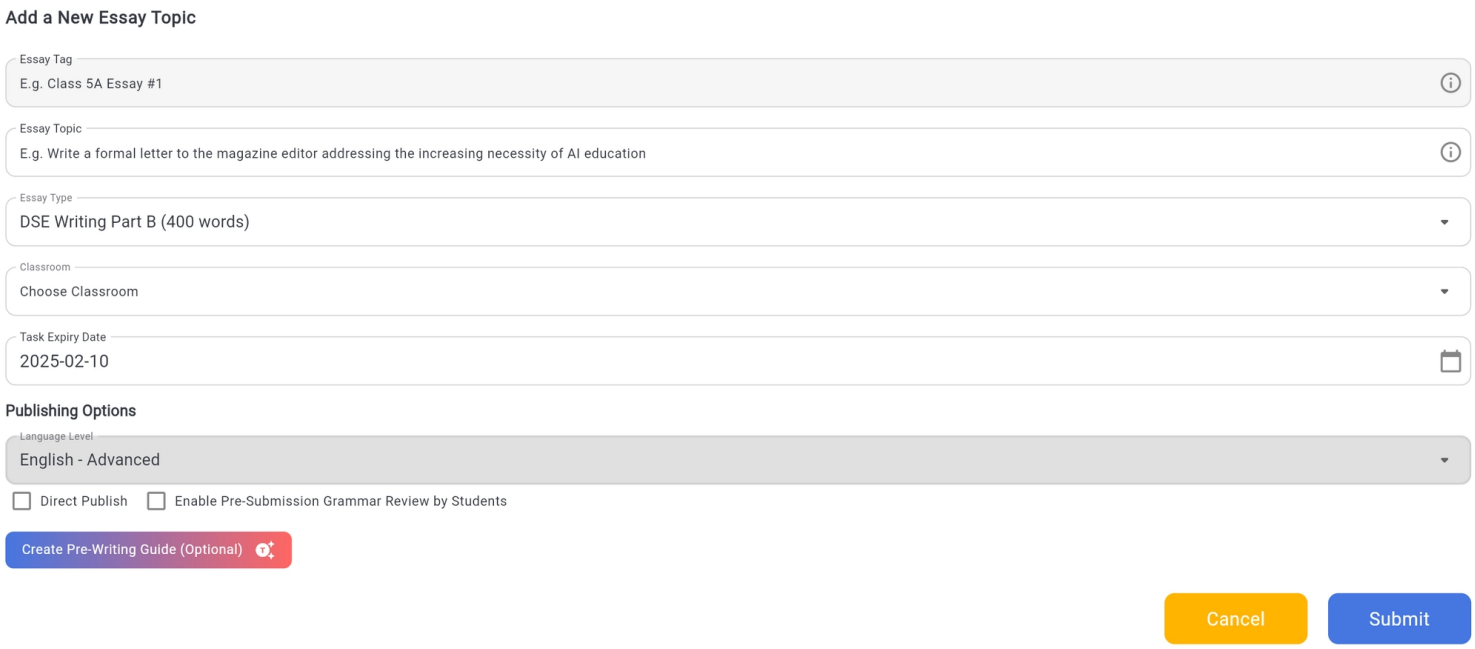
Click on the ‘Create A New Essay Topic’ box.

This box you will be able to create your own essay tasks.

Create a New Essay Assignment

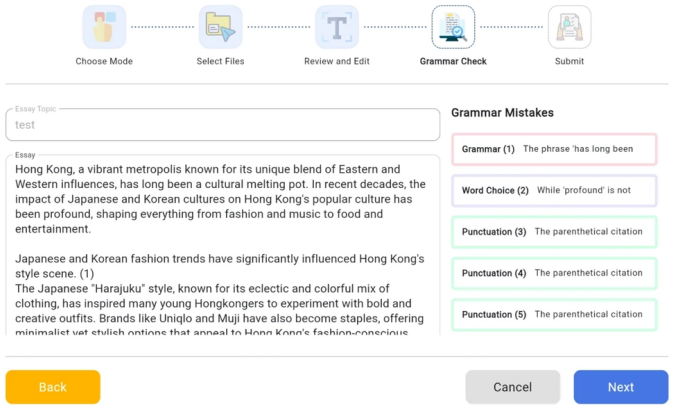
Navigate to the ‘Create a new essay topic’ button to start a new essay task

- Fill in/ Select all the relevant boxes
  - Essay Tag
  - Essay Topic
  - Essay Type (TSA/ DSE Part A/ DSE Part B)
    - Here you are basically telling Penso which marking scheme should be implemented when analysing your work)
  - Language Level in Graded Report (English - Basic/ Advanced; Chinese - Basic/ Advanced)



Enable Pre-Submission Grammar Review

- If enabled, Penso can provide grammatical feedback on your essays before submission. This allows you to review and make necessary changes. (This would be shown after you have submitted for OCR)



Video Demonstration

Pre-Writing Guide

Penso's pre-writing guide is an optional feature that helps create concise guidelines to assist you in writing coherent essays. It covers these key aspects of essay composition:

- Analyze Text Type and Provide Tips
- Brainstorm Ideas
- Structure Essay
- Preparing a vocabulary list (Adjectives, Verbs, Nouns, Phrasal Verbs & Figurative Language)

To access this part, simply click on the 'Create Pre-Writing Guide' Button.

Click on the 'Generate a Pre-Writing Guide' button to generating a pre-writing guide based on the essay question provided. This should take less than a minute to load up.

Pre-writing guide - Essential planning tips provided by teachers to students

Pre-Writing Guide for All Students (Optional)

1. Analyze Text Type and Provide Tips

Purpose: To inform and engage readers about the influence of Japanese and/or Korean culture on Hong Kong popular culture.

Audience: Readers interested in cultural trends, particularly those focused on East Asian cultures.

Register: Semi-formal to informal, as it is a blog post intended to be engaging and accessible.

Tone and Style: Conversational, insightful, and engaging. Use a mix of factual information and personal anecdotes or observations.

Tips:

- Use engaging language to capture the reader's interest.
- Incorporate personal insights or experiences if relevant.
- Use examples to highlight cultural influences.
- Be respectful and appreciative of all cultures discussed.
- Encourage reader interaction through questions or comments.

Close

Video Demonstration