Navigate Your Way Around

Once you're in, navigate the ‘Student’ tab the on bottom column.

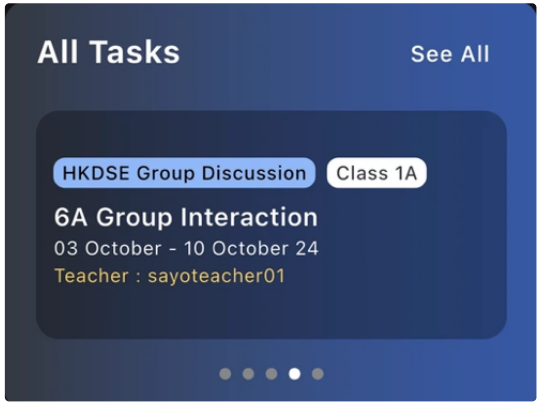
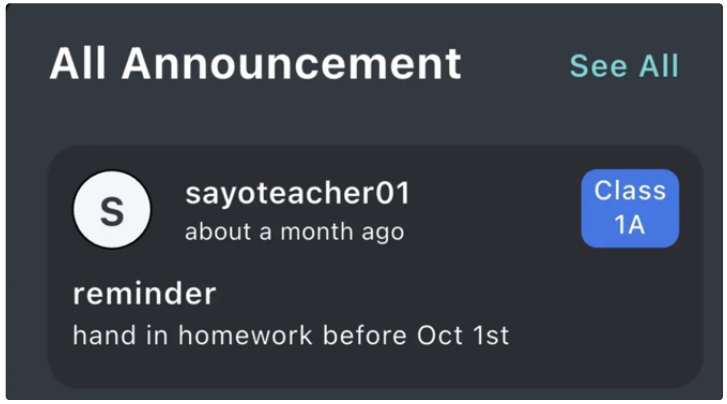
In the Student tab, you'll find two sections:

- All Task: Check out any speaking assignments assigned by your teachers.
- All Announcement: Stay up-to-date with announcements from your teacher.

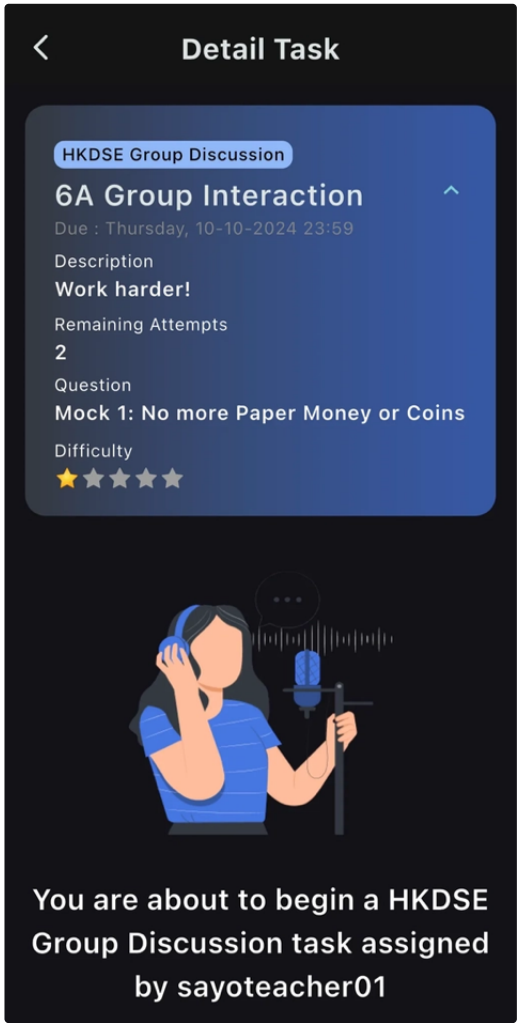




Ready to Practice?

- Tap on an assignment to start your speaking practice.
    - Click 'See All' to see what other speaking tasks you have coming up

- Click the dropdown arrow for more details on the assignment, so you know exactly what's expected.
    - Here, you can view the assigned speaking task, the specific question to address, and the number of remaining attempts.

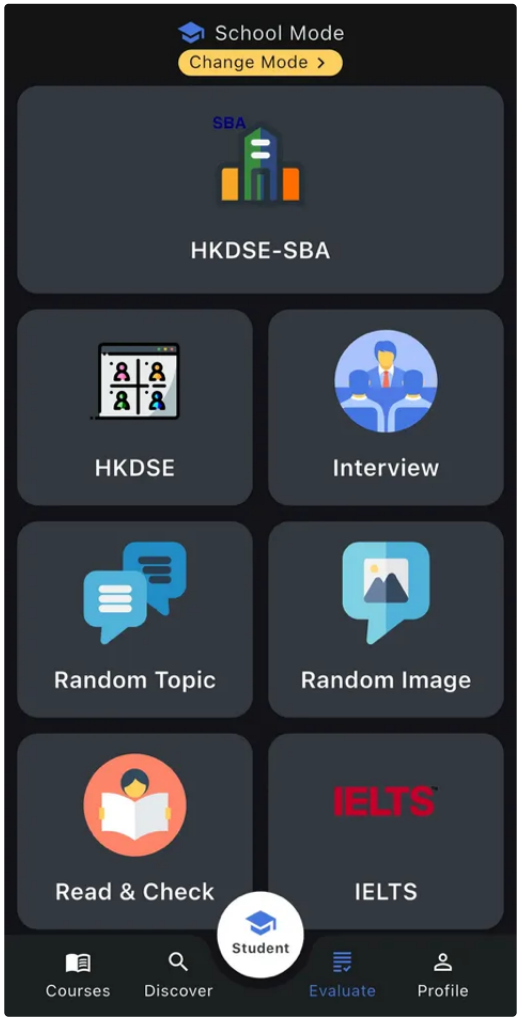


Exploring Different Sayo Functions

Evaluate 🔍

In this section, you'll find materials to help you practice for your curriculum exams.

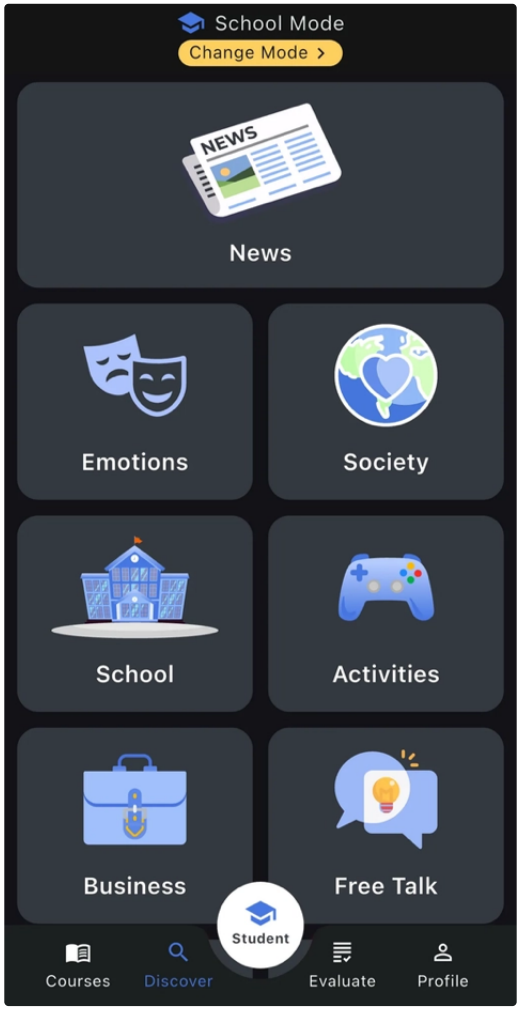
- Senior Forms (S4-S6): Try out HKDSE Paper 4 (Group Interaction & Individual Response), HKDSE SBA, and the Interview Function to prepare for your internship interviews in the coming years.
- Junior Forms (S1-S3): Practice your speaking skills with Random Topics, Random Images, and Read & Check! These exercises will be useful when preparing for your upcoming school exams.
- For those exploring alternative study paths in other countries: The IELTS speaking practice will be your best ally to ace your next entrance exam.



Discover 🤖

Practice discussing trending topics with Sayo AI across various subjects—from those you don't learn in school to ones you might encounter during lessons.

Strive to complete all quests listed in each task. Doing your best is important, as missing quests may result in penalties.



Courses 📖

Learn new phrases, improve pronunciation, and practice sentences through thorough discussions with Sayo AI. You can enhance your speaking skills, progressing from a secondary school student's level to that of a successful businessperson. Along the way, you'll also expand your vocabulary!

School Mode v Individual Mode

At the top of your Profile, you'll see a toggle to switch between School and Individual modes. When working on a speaking assignment from your teacher, make sure to switch to 'School Mode'. Keep in mind that your school access may have limitations on the number of practices you can do. If you want to do extra practice outside of school, switch back to 'Individual Mode', where you can practice freely.

P.S. Individual mode has limited features on a Free account, while School mode has no restrictions and uses school credits.

Give It Your Best!

Now that you've learned how Sayo AI can help you, dive in! Remember, every attempt is an opportunity to improve. Don't worry about being perfect—if you think you can do better, you'll get another chance. Give it your all and watch yourself grow!
