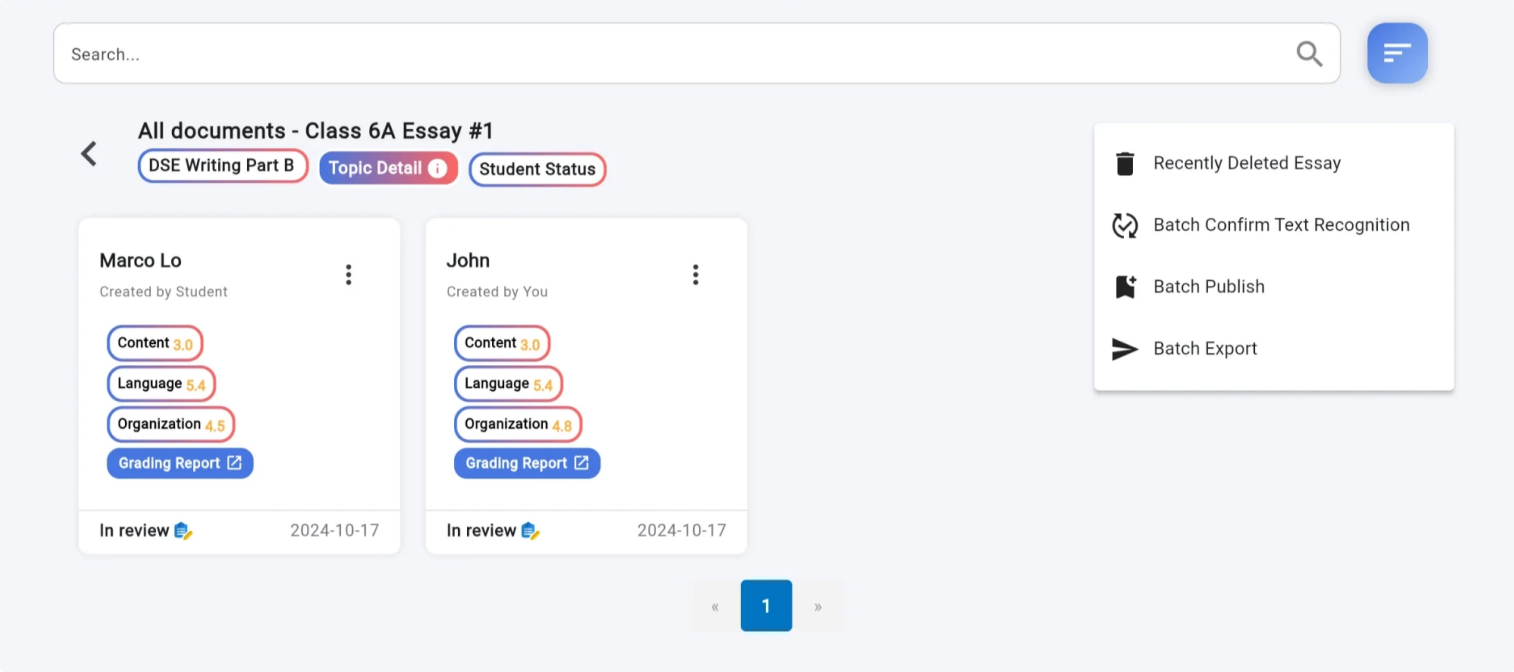
Publishing and Exporting (1)

Once you have finished going through all the reports and grading, you can now publish it to the whole class. Select the ‘three dots’ at the top right of your classroom and select ‘Batch Publish.

- Now, your students are going to receive their feedback.



Exporting Feedback

You can export the feedback report and distribute it to students by clicking the "Batch Export" button. This will generate a report (Microsoft Words/ Google Docs) with all the key metrics and the respective exercises.
